BDO Philippines ushers in the New Year with a new partner

BDO Philippines is pleased to announce the admission of Michael D. Roxas as partner, effective 1 January 2011.

Michael joined BDO Philippines as Audit Manager on 3 August 2009 and proved himself capable in maintaining the highest level of client service, quality and technical expertise, including acquisition of big-ticket engagements and taking on the role of Audit Process Tool (One Network, One Methodology, One Tool) Champion.

Before BDO Philippines, he was connected with Ernst & Young Philippines and Moore Stephens CIS Ltd. based in Russia.

He has extensive audit work experience in a broad spectrum of industries, which includes shipping, mining, oil extraction/exploration, cement manufacturing, telecommunications, real estate, timber, construction, hospital, utilities and service-oriented entities.

BDO Philippines believes that Michael will continue to excel in his new capacity and contribute to the firm's development as it moves towards the strategic direction of specialization, differentiation and market niche.
